On Digital First Communities

Keynote Speakers

Jennifer Carroll MacNeill

Allan Mulrooney

Joann Hosey

Mark Henry

Topic 1 - Localities as platforms for sustainable jobs

Towns will become platforms for local jobs, by providing livable places and sustainable mobility.

Eoin Costello

Connection is the key to finding the momentum needed for long-lasting change.

Allan Mulrooney

Smart Community is a community willing to discover and experience what is possible with digital technology.

Joann Hosey

Topic 2 - Digital First Communities - Uniting people around their place for prosperity

Everything starts at a local level, from connection to climate change.

Eamonn Donlyn

Let's work on our connection and our belonging and leverage the digital opportunity that we have.

Fintan Kennedy

We can use technology to build community.

Gavin Duffy

Topic 3 - Reimagining hubs as the power behind Digital First Communities

With digital at the centre of communities, we can develop and control technology as opposed to being users of tech controlled by others.

Sebastiano Toffaletti

There is AI for good. It can help us to unlock productivity.

Catherine Butler Weir

There is a need for positivity. Hubs can change the narrative for their localities by publishing positive news.
